

Free school holiday activities for kids and teens

Guitars for beginners: teens

Are you an absolute beginner and interested in learning guitar? If so get inspired to learn with singer, songwriter and musician Mark Lowndes from Tui n Friends for a free class. Learn some basic skills to start you on your guitar journey. Guitars to use at this session will be provided or BYO tuned instrument.

Scan the QR code for library locations, dates, times, and to book in.

Fantasy map making in watercolour with Dr Cameron Stelzer

Bring imaginary worlds to life with a fun map making activity. Hunt for treasure, battle beasts or take a trip to candy island! A hands-on drawing and watercolour workshop with Dr Cameron Stelzer.

Logan Central Library
Thursday 7 July
10 am to 11 am

Drawing characters and backgrounds with Gregg Driese

Join author, artist and song writer Gregg Driese in a hands-on session on drawing characters to create backgrounds in illustrations. For ages 7 and over.

Jimboomba Library
Tuesday 5 July
3 pm to 4 pm

Mystery writing with Rhiannon D. Elton

Build your own fantasy detective character. Be inspired by Logan author Rhiannon D. Elton's new series 'The Wolflock Cases'. Find out about the journey of writing and the path of being a writer. For ages 10 and over.

Logan North Library
Tuesday 28 June
2 pm to 3 pm

Book by scanning the QR codes or visit our website.
Our friendly team are here to help if you need help to book in.

loglib.org/schoolhols