

Free school holiday workshops for kids

Minecraft pirate maps and ships with STEM Punks

Learn new skills in Minecraft 3D design and Micro:bit to create your own pirate treasure map and ship. Code a compass using Micro:bit and learn about pirate ships and maps. For ages 8 and over. The course is online and open Mon 27 June to Fri 1 July 2022. Register and complete anytime online 24/7.

Monday 27 June
10 am

Guitar for beginners

Are you an absolute beginner and interested in learning guitar? If so get inspired to learn with singer, songwriter and musician Mark Lowndes from Tui n Friends for a free class. Learn some basic skills to start you on your guitar journey. Guitars to use at this session will be provided or BYO tuned instrument. 45 minute session.

Scan the QR code for library locations, dates, times, and to book in.

Draw, draw, draw with Dr Cameron Stelzer

Try your hand at drawing with Author and Illustrator Dr Cameron Stelzer. Children will get to draw characters from Cameron's stories.

Greenbank Library
Thursday 7 July
12:30 pm to 1:30 pm

Watercolour illustration for kids with Dr Cameron Stelzer

Learn drawing and watercolour tips with author and illustrator Dr Cameron Stelzer (Doctorate of Visual Arts). Get started with watercolours in this free, in-person hands-on session.

Logan Village Library
Thursday 7 July
3 pm to 4 pm

Book by scanning the QR codes or visit our website.
Our friendly team are here to help if you need help to book in.

loglib.org/whats-on